

Business in a Box

Business in una Scatolina

What is it? Business in una Scatolina is a package of legal services aimed at start-up businesses. There are 3 packages with different price points, but all with the same objective: to get businesses owners accustomed to budgeting for an attorney and cultivate a pro-active approach to law. You will no longer wait for a problem to appear before contacting an attorney, but will take steps to prevent one from happening.
